-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 1 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. This Office Action is the answer to the communication filed on February 12, 2001, which paper has been placed of record in the file.
2. Claims 1-84 are pending in this application.

Election/Restriction

3. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-10, 26-43, 60-66, and 72-78 drawn to a method and system for offer for and extra credit line to the target customer group, classified in class 705, subclass 14.
  - II. Claims 11-22 and 44-56 drawn to a method and system for processing credit card transaction, classified in class 705, subclass 39.
  - III. Claims 23-25 and 57-59 drawn to a method and system for performing transaction associated with a web site, classified in class 705, subclass 26.
  - IV. Claims 67-71 and 79-84 drawn to a method and system for processing payments for a credit card account, classified in class 705, subclass 40.
4. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. See MPEP § 806.05(d). In the instant case, invention has separate utility such as:

Inventions I and II have separate utility such as: the invention I drawn to a method and system for offer for and extra credit line to the target customer group, in contrast, the invention II drawn to method and system for processing credit card transaction. Therefore, the invention I and II are shown to be separately usable.

Inventions I and III have separate utility such as: the invention I drawn to a method and system for offer for and extra credit line to the target customer group, in contrast, the invention III drawn to method and system for performing transaction associated with a web site. Therefore, the invention I and III are shown to be separately usable.

Inventions I and IV have separate utility such as: the invention I drawn to a method and system for offer for and extra credit line to the target customer group, in contrast, the invention IV drawn to method and system for processing payments for a credit card account. Therefore, the invention I and IV are shown to be separately usable.

Inventions II and III have separate utility such as: the invention II drawn to method and system for processing credit card transaction, in contrast, the invention III drawn to method and system for performing transaction associated with a web site. Therefore, the invention II and III are shown to be separately usable.

Inventions II and IV have separate utility such as: the invention II drawn to method and system for processing credit card transaction, in contrast, the invention IV drawn to method and system for processing payments for a credit card account. Therefore, the invention II and IV are shown to be separately usable.

Inventions III and IV have separate utility such as: the invention III drawn to method and system for performing transaction associated with a web site, in contrast, the invention IV drawn to method and system for processing payments for a credit card account. Therefore, the invention III and IV are shown to be separately usable.

Art Unit: 3628

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to examiner Nga B. Nguyen, whose telephone number is (703) 306-2901. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Thursday from 8:30 AM-6:00 PM.
